DEDICATION

Commemorative Words
Spoken by Principal J.A. Corry
at the Service in Memoriam
Leonard W. Brockington
Grant Hall, September 25, 1966

As we think of Leonard Brockington, we should call to mind what was once said of Edmund Burke, he had a "surpassing ability to add definition and colour to the unformulated feelings of many thousand less articulate human beings." In a land to which he was not born but to which he gave the fervent feelings of nature, he summed up for the rest of us the essential experience of being a Canadian, things we felt in our bones but were too clumsy to say. He had great skills for interpreting us to ourselves. He was master of the right word, the happy phrase, the clinching anecdote, in every case drawn mostly from deep wells of English speech and literary memory. He used these skills to express for us what we want ourselves and Canada to be. Above all, the rich cadences of his voice affirming his faith in, and hope for, his country made him a national possession.

Queen's people knew him more intimately and possessed him more surely than any other group of his countrymen. For, just as he has been an authentic voice of Canada, so he was beyond all question, the RECTOR MAGNIFICUS of Queen's. He was not only the Alma Mater Society's family solicitor: He was the friend of a host of young men and women of Queen's, through the counsel, encouragement and help he gave them. Nor did he forget them when they graduated.

His care for Queen's did not stop with students and graduates. It went to all the matters of the spirit that come within the compass and special charge of a university. Rare and beautiful books, precious manuscripts and collections, were always finding their way to the Douglas Library through his generosity. On the Board of Trustees, he allowed none of his colleagues to forget the purposes of a university that go beyond efficiency, utility and wise stewardship of material things.

He lavished his qualities of mind and heart on this University. He once said he was only a temporary guest at its hearth. We would not want to contradict him in much, but this we deny. He will live long in our memories, and not least will he be remembered as one "who, doomed to go in company with pain . . . turned his necessity to glorious gain."

How fortunate it is to belong to Queen's '67 – surely a famous year! Attachment to any particular year, Faculty, or discipline soon becomes dominated by loyalty to Queen's, but the class of '67 will maintain its identity more strongly than most. None of your many predecessors witnessed more changes in campus and classroom – or demonstrated deeper involvement and less conformity. And few can have surpassed your moments of excitement and fun, as the pictures in Tricolor '67 testify. Your highest achievements are less easily measured or depicted.

The word ALUMNUS, I am told, properly signifies 'nursling' – one who is still receiving sustenance, not handing it out. The derivation might seem quite inappropriate for the '67 graduate who anticipates giving counsel and support to ALMA MATER, and it may be that the intent of the word has changed down the centuries. Perhaps your conclusions on this pedantic matter should be waived until you leaf through Tricolor '67 some years hence. At that time you may find that your experience supports the original meaning: that the brief years at Queen's – the sparks that were struck, the fires that were kindled, the friendships that were forged – were the beginnings of a lifelong feast. I hope so and wish you well.

NOW THAT YOU ARE A GRADUATE

You have become a full member of the University, and you are invited to share in the programme of the Alumni Association, along with upwards of 22,000 others.

What the Association Can Do For You

- Send you, free of charge, the alumni magazine, The Queen's Review, published six times a year.
- Mimeograph and mail class newsletters.
- Arrange class reunions and prepare and distribute reunion notices.
- Provide addresses of classmates.
- Reserve tickets for football games.
- Help you find employment or change positions.
- Provide contact with other Queen's graduates through the branches, which are established wherever there is a concentration of graduates.

What You Can Do for the Association

- Keep in touch with the University.
- Represent Queen's in your community.
- Help interest and direct good students to the University.
- Notify the Employment Service of job opportunities.
- Participate in branch activities.
- Support undertakings for the advancement of the interests of the University.
- Vote in the elections of graduates to the Board of Trustees, the University Council, and other administrative and advisory committees, and be prepared to become an active participant yourself.

What price education?

It is beyond price ! Education cannot be bought, borrowed, or inherited. The only way to obtain it, is to earn it. Stelco recognizes its value, and the increasing need for it, in today's highly-competitive atmosphere . . . and also recognizes that specialized education is denied to many deserving young Canadians through lack of funds. This is why Stelco sponsors a program of assistance to universities, technical schools, and students across Canada, by providing awards, scholarships and bursaries in Technology, Engineering, Science, Business Administration, Teaching, Commerce, and Finance.

For further information on this program, or on a career in steel, write to Stelco's Head office in Hamilton, Ontario.

THE CANADIAN ARMED FORCES

Congratulations to the Class of '67

For more than fifty years the graduating class at Queen's has contained officers of the Canadian Armed Forces, regular and reserve, who have qualified for a commission while a member of Queen's University. Currently there are several programmes in which a university student may qualify for a commission.

The Regular Officer Training Plan

Tuition and other expenses are paid, plus pay and allowances for 365 days per year. Members are commissioned in the Regular Force on graduation, then serve a minimum of four years in the component of their choice.

The Medical Subsidization Program

Tuition and other expenses are paid, plus pay and allowances for 365 days per year. There is no military training during the academic term. Members serve a minimum of three years after graduation.

The University Reserve Training Program

Members are paid for the actual time spent in training. After completion of the second year the officer cadets are eligible for a commission in the Reserve with the rank of second lieutenant or equivalent.

Direct Entry

Undergraduates may apply for a commission in the Regular Force at any time. Students in the final year may apply for a commission upon graduation.

Eligibility:

Canadian citizens and British subjects who are landed immigrants may earn a commission while attending university.

Training:

Military training during the term is about two hours each week. Summer training is a minimum period of 12 weeks, but may be extended to 15 weeks.

Apply to:

The Resident Staff Officer,

Students Union Building,

Queen's University.

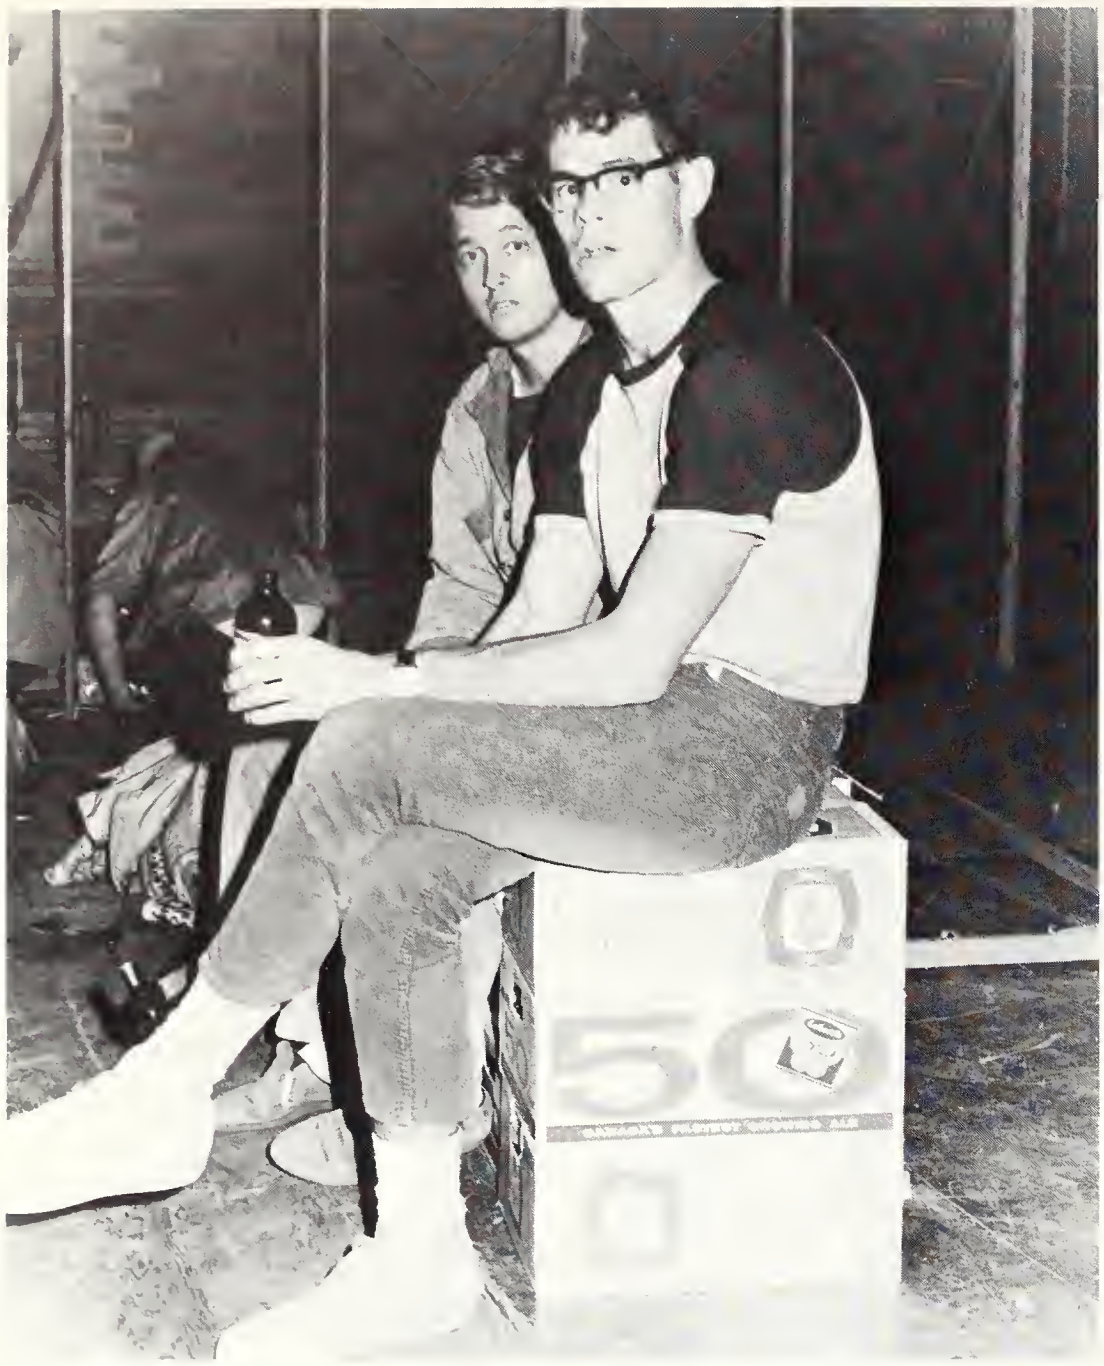
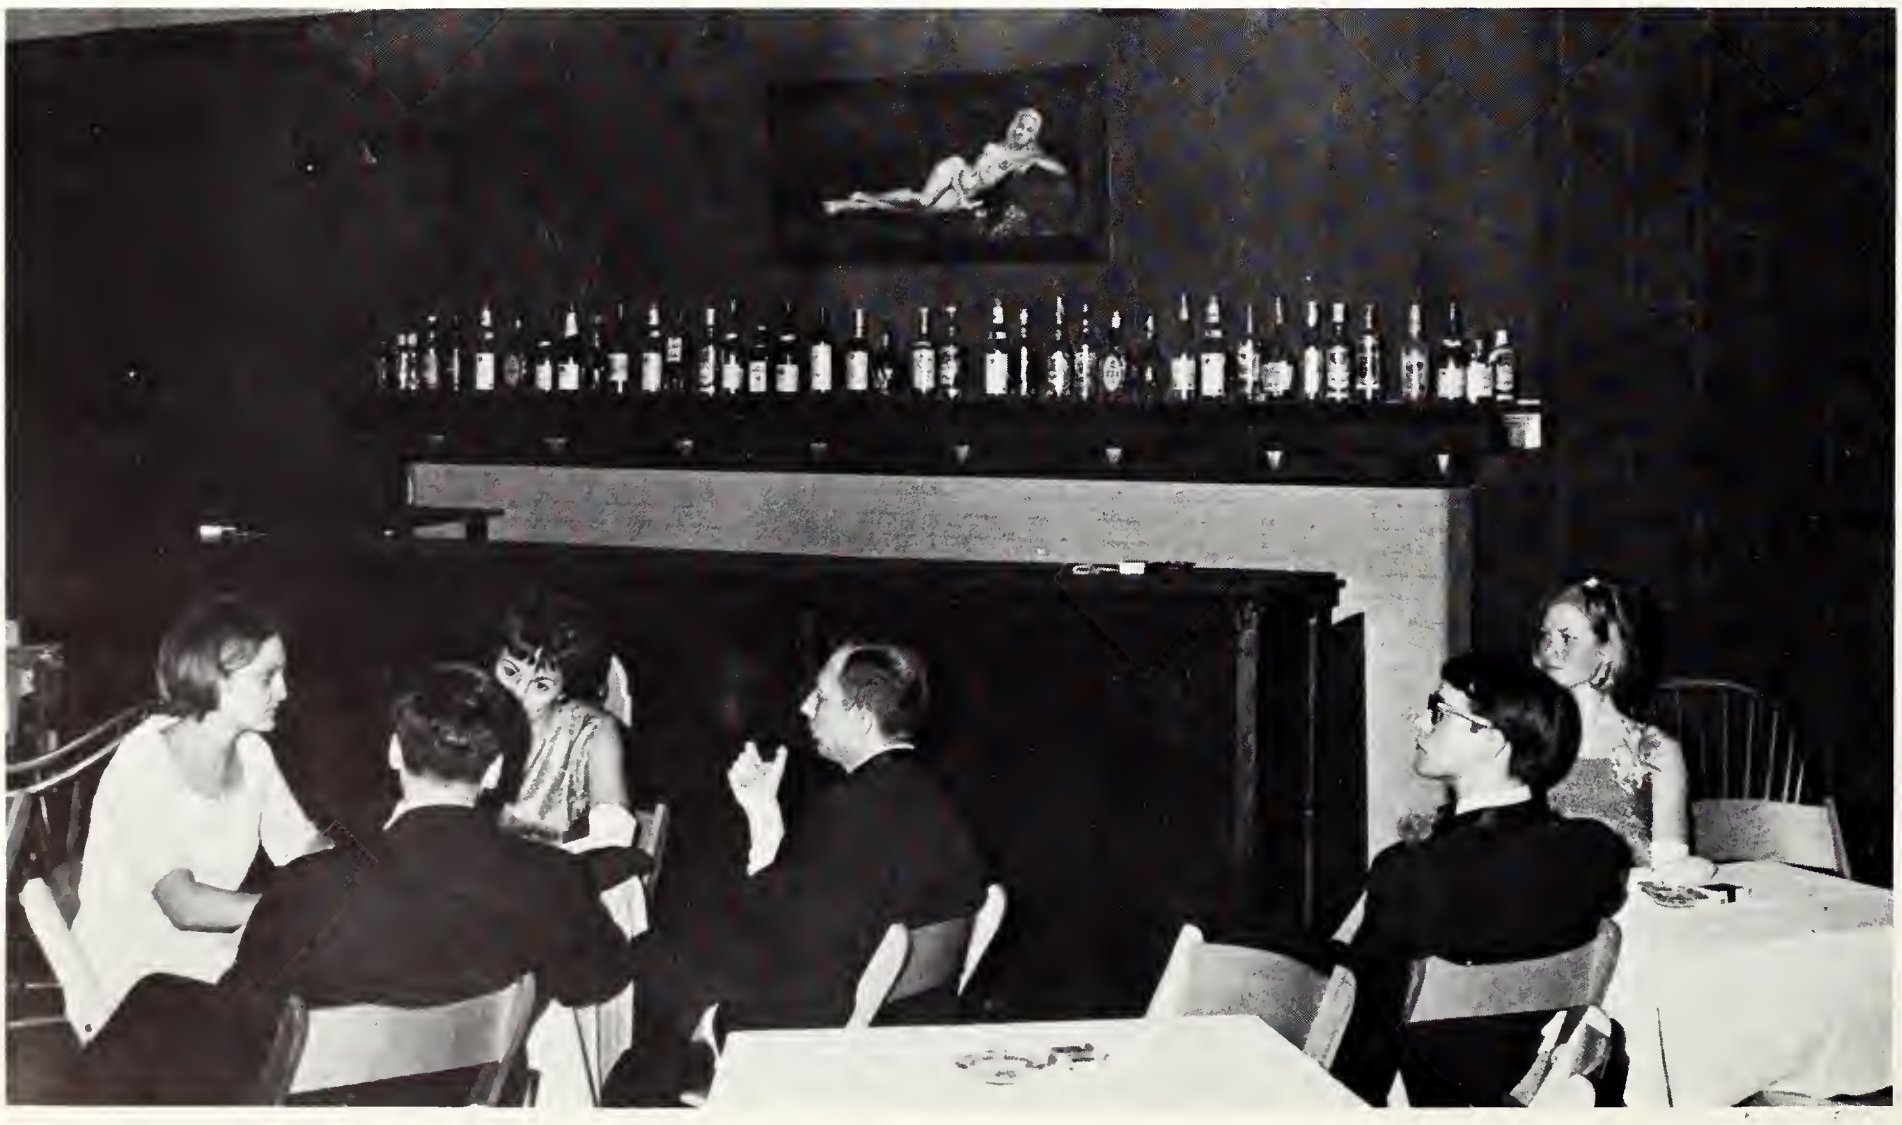
TRICOLOR '67 Staff





Who looks back?

Children don't. The young-at-heart don't.
As a matter of fact, we don't. Even at this historic moment—the start of Centennial Year—we would rather look over the horizon than over our shoulder. Canada's second century. What can we do with it?
How can we make it even better, even more productive, than our first century?
For our part, we're intending to use even more imagination in everything we do.
Lots more ingenuity. Many more scientific techniques that we haven't even dreamed of yet. And you—you'll be shopping in ways you've never shopped before.
Nicer shopping. More convenient shopping. Much more exciting shopping.

1967. What a year to look forward to. What a century to look forward to. Happy Second Century!

EATON'S

As the work on Tricolor '67 draws to a close, we on the staff look back on a busy year of happy memories, mounds of pictures, floods of coffee and many late nights.

Special thanks go to Wally Berry for his infinite co-operation and prompt service, to Barry Fawcett for his time behind the camera and in the dark-room, and to Eadie Jane Rive for a well planned year section, and to an excellent staff who worked well as a team for the book as a whole.

May you enjoy Tricolor '67 for years to come.
